What are my obligations?

- You must inform us without delay of any changes in your situation, including any named drivers. In the event of a claim, you must notify us as soon as possible.
- It's really important that you're honest with us when you're buying a policy or making a claim. Providing wrong or misleading information that you know could either help you gain financially, or cause us to suffer a financial loss, is fraud and pushes up the cost of insurance for all customers.
- Looking after your car - you need to make sure that your car is road worthy and safe to drive at all times. You must protect your car and its accessories from being stolen or damaged.
- You must meet the terms of any endorsements. Endorsements are additional terms that apply to your policy; you'll find details on your policy schedule.
- You must use your car's equipment in accordance with the manufacturers' instructions, such as electric charging cables and tow bars.

When and how do I pay?

Please refer to your insurance intermediary for details.

When does the cover start and end?

Please check your most recent schedule for your cover start and end date.

How do I cancel the contract?

You're able to cancel your policy at any time. To do so, you need to get in contact with the insurance advisor who sold you this policy. How much money you get back will depend on how long you've had the policy for and whether or not a claim has been made or may be made on your policy.

cancelling before the policy starts

If you cancel the policy before the start date, we'll refund you your entire premium.

cancelling after the start of the policy

If you cancel after the start date of your policy, we'll refund you for the time that is left on the policy, minus our administration charge of £24 (plus insurance premium tax, where applicable), as long as no claim has been made or may need to be made on your policy. Your insurance advisor may also make an administration charge for cancelling your policy, on top of our charge. If a claim has been made on this policy, or something has happened which might lead to a claim – then you won't receive any refund.
